

LIMITATIONS FOR TRAINEE INTERPRETERS AND JUNIOR TRAINEE INTERPRETERS

The Registration Panel expects that individual BSL/English Interpreters will know their own limitations, and will act within the spirit of the Code of Ethics and Guidelines for Professional Practice in deciding which assignments they are currently sufficiently experienced and competent to accept. The Independent Registration Panel may introduce measures to regulate the work of Trainee and Junior Trainee Interpreters in future years.

However, there are currently no limitations in force regarding particular domains for Trainee and Junior Trainee Interpreters (TI/JTI) other than in the legal domain where the National Agreement stipulates that only Members of the Register of BSL/English Interpreters (MRSLI) should be used. In order to be seen to be actively promoting best practice, CACDP reserves the right to contact TIs and JTIs whose advertising submissions indicates a willingness to work in domains considered unsuitable for interpreters in these categories, e.g. mental health settings. If it is deemed necessary, CACDP may refuse to include this information.
